Wine List

Wines by the Glass

Chardonnay

This white wine boasts an impressive range of flavors from buttered oak to the fresh, fruit flavors of apple, pear, citrus and melon, leaving a lasting palate impression. Pairs well with poultry dishes, pork, seafood or recipes that have a heavy cream base

Pinot Grigio

A dry white wine with crisp acidity that is a natural companion to seafood, particularly shellfish, fowl, light pastas, and cheese

White Zinfandel

A light, sweet white wine with a citrus flavor that pairs well with a crisp fruit salad, pasta with a cream-based-sauce, fish, pork, and other lighter meals

Sauvignon Blanc

(Seasonal)

A dry white wine that is always tangy, tart, nervy, racy and zesty with aromas of lemon grass, grapefruit, lime and melon and flavors of vanilla, cream, oak and toast. Probably the best dry white wine to accompany a variety of foods such as salads, creamy pastas, poultry dishes and even desserts

Pinot Noir

Exhibits flavors reminiscent of sweet red berries, plums, tomatoes, cherries and at times a notable hint of earth or wood. This red is well-suited to pair with poultry, beef, fish, ham, lamb and pork as well as creamy sauces, spicy seasonings

Merlot

A range of fresh flavors such as plums, cherries, blueberries and blackberries mixed with black pepper tones, typically dominate this smooth red wine. Goes extremely well with poultry, red meat, pork, pastas and salads

Cabernet Sauvignon

"Cabs" range from medium to full-bodied and are characterized by their high tannin content which serve to provide structure and intrigue while supporting a rich, ripe berry, tobacco and sometimes green pepper flavor. Try with red meats, hearty (red) pastas, lamb, strong cheese, and chocolates (especially dark chocolate)

Chianti

A dry red wine can range from light to full-bodied and displays aromas and flavors of cherry, often roses and violets mingled with fairly high acidity. Goes well with all types of Italian foods as well as beef, chicken, tomato-based dishes

Sangria

(Red or White by the Glass or the Pitcher)

Red or white wine with fresh, seasonal fruit and a bit of bubbly water or citrus-flavored soda or brandy creating a fruit-filled beverage that is refreshing and easy to drink with a wide variety of foods
